DAILY REMINDERS

Orders taken now for California green Christmas trees. Henry May Wanted—Two more passengers for round-the-island trip in 1914 Pierce-Arrow or Locomobile. Lewis Stables, phone 2141.—advertisement.

Our store open every evening. Hawaii and South Seas Curio Co. Large-est Pacific-Souvenir Store in the World, Young building.—advertisement.

As most Christmas presents would be seriously damaged if your home caught fire, better commence thinking to C. Brewer & Co. about fire insurance.

Suggestions for gifts for men, women and children are advanced in the advertisement of Benson, Smith & Co.
Hotel and Fort streets, in the Star-Bulletin today.

Toys and toys. Hundreds upon hundreds of toys of all kinds and at all prices. Santa Claus' headquarters.
Bring the children. Arleigh's. Hotel near Fort.—advertisement.

Do you know that a copy of "Bits of Verse From Hawaii" will make one of the nicest Christmas presents that you could send to your friend on the mainland? You can find it at any of the bookstores.—advertisement.

The storms that are delaying most vessels from the coast have absolutely no effect on the wireless communication with the other islands or with those boats at sea. Your messages via wireless (Mutual Telephone Co.) will get there, and quickly.

If you are a mailbird (newcomer to Hawaii) you cannot express your appreciation of these islands and all they contain in a more emphatic and telling way than by sending to your friends on the coast a copy of "Bits of Verse From Hawaii." And you will want a copy for yourself after you have seen it. At all bookstores.

A cat for a Christmas present—a pedigreed Persian high bred cat—why not? There will be a number of them on display and for sale at the Honolulu Drug store on Thursday, Friday and Saturday. They are beautiful and are sure to be snapped up with little delay. A look at their cat majesties will decide you.

Have you heard anybody say, "What in the world will I give him (or her) for Christmas?" If you have they certainly have not read the Star-Bulletin lately. About every store in this city has been naming over the many hundreds of things that would make fine gifts. Wichman & Company has nearly a hundred "suggestions" along their line that ought to make the road easy.
Among the many thousands of gifts that you have seen in your travels about the city have you seen any one that would outshine a manicure set for her (you know)? If she has not a set now, take more than a passing interest in the beauties that are on display at Hollister's and you will not come far from occupying unchallenged the "cozy little corner in her heart" she has been keeping for you.

There seems to be no reason to doubt the Manufacturers' Shoe Company's statement that they "have a present for every member of the family." In their advertisement they have not stated any particular family, and to judge from the size and quality of the stock of up-to-date footwear on display in their windows and the groaning shelves, they must mean every family in Hawaii. What is more acceptable than a pair of perfect fitting shoes?

There is a distinctiveness, an individuality in the clothing that is being offered to the Honolulu public by the Ideal Clothing Company on Hotel street. The world-renowned Adler-Rochester make of clothing is frequently seen along the streets of this city on those who pretend to be the best dressed, and they certainly are. Being well dressed is over one-half of the battle of life, and you can consider that you have one-half of the battle securely tucked away if you are sporting an Adler-Rochester suit. It is the proper caper. The Ideal is calling attention to the fact that they are prepared to satisfy any customer with gent's furnishings from his socks to his collar with the best in that line.

After January 1, books may be sent parcels post, and the weight limits for packages will be increased.
